

CORPORATE VOLUNTEERING

Wollert Community Farm

Connect. Contribute. Regenerate nature.

Wollert Community Farm is a unique community-run space in Melbourne's outer north where people come together to learn, grow and make a real impact. From environmental restoration to social enterprise projects, your team can help create lasting community and environmental change.

What we do

At the Farm, your team can get hands-on with:

- nugal biik plants and seeds - our plant nursery growing species native to Melbourne's northern region, supporting First Nations-led initiatives and local conservation.
- Environmental and conservation projects - habitat restoration, planting, weeding, seed work and bush-care activities.

Why volunteer with us?

Corporate volunteering at the Farm offers your team:

- An opportunity to support our community building project
- Hands-on learning about native ecology and environmental regeneration
- Time outside in nature for improved wellbeing and team cohesion
- Tailored activities that draw on your team's professional skills
